A Gentle Guide for Our Young Dancers

CHILD-FRIENDLY CODE OF CONDUCT

This Child-Friendly Code of Conduct was created to help young dancers understand our studio values in a simple, warm, and engaging way.

Parents are invited to read this guide together with their children, using the short rhymes and illustrations to support kindness, safety, and joyful learning inside and outside the studio.

Be Kind

We speak nicely and treat everyone with respect.

Be Safe

We follow the teacher's instructions to keep our bodies safe.

Be Ready

We arrive on time, with our dance clothes and a happy heart.

Be Careful

We take care of our space, our friends, and our things.

Be Brave

We try our best, even when something feels new or hard.

Be Fair

We share, take turns, and include everyone.

Be Honest

If something feels wrong or uncomfortable, we tell the teacher.

Be Respectful

We listen when someone else is talking.

Be Gentle

Our words, hands, and actions are always calm and peaceful.

Be You!

Dance with joy, kindness, and your own beautiful energy.

RHYME →

*Be kind, be sweet,
with gentle words and gentle feet.*

*Be safe, be calm,
let movement flow just like a palm.*

*Be ready to try,
stretch your wings and let them fly.*

*Be fair, be true,
share the space with someone new.*

*Be brave inside,
let your heart be your guide.*

*Be honest and say
if something feels wrong today.*

*Be soft, be light,
treat your friends with care and might.*

*Be joyful too,
dance your dance — the world needs YOU.*

How to Use This Guide With Your Child

- Read one rhyme at a time and talk about what it means.
- Show the images and ask your child how they feel about them.
- Encourage your child to share examples from class or daily life.
- Revisit the guide regularly to reinforce safe, kind, and respectful habits.
- Celebrate when your child practices one of the values (kindness, honesty, bravery, gentleness, etc.).
